National Coin Week Slogans

Coin Collecting Lights the Candles of History

American Numismatic Association is celebrating 100 years of tradition and history. Every past year has brought a candle to be lit in honor of our achievement and the history we have bestounded on such a satisfying hobby. The incoming years will bring new candles and each one will be lit to symbolize the traditions and history of coins and this hobby.

Coin Collecting is an Old Hobby with a New Look

The last century has made coin collecting the hobby of the common man, and numismatics has taken on a new look. As we enter our second century of numismatic tradition let us look back on what such an old hobby has brought us - Satisfaction and Enjoyment. Coin collecting gives us these feeling in a new way each and every upcoming day.

Unwrap the Presents of History

Finding a new coin or discovering an old one is like opening a Christmas or birthday present. Your mind starts asking millions of questions in an exciting way. The excitement, the history it shows in its many faces . . . It is truly like unwrapping a piece of history.

Money from the Past . . . Treasures Forever

Every collector has a little treasure. Whether it has been passed down from generation to generation or found in a far off land. Coins will always be a treasure in a true collectors eye.

Coin Collecting Creates Happiness

The coin collecting hobby dates back 2500 years. It is the oldest and most enjoyed hobby in the world. Coins create happiness and joy for all generations- past, present and future.

Open the Doors of History

All of us sometime of another has thought of stepping into a mad scientist time machine and taking off to visit Ancient Rome or traveling to see Ben Franklin discover electricity. Numismatics is just that--Stepping into a time machine and stopping at each door to discover all the history that coins have to offer.

Finding History in Your Pocket

The next time you take a coin out of your pocket, take a deeper look at it. Study the art work, think of the stories it might tell if it could talk. Think of the history it is to bring.

Explore the World Through Numismatics

The world is a huge playground for all to see and experience. When one steps into a coin show or into a coin store or even find a large amount of coins it is like stepping out of the city or town and taking a trip to England or China. Each trip is rewarding in its own way. Coins can teach so many different locations and lifestyles without leaving a chair.

Art in the Round

An ear-pleasing phrase stressing that coins are indeed works of art.

Coins: Strike a Friendship

Using the concept of coins being struck, this slogan alludes to the friendships a collector makes not only with the items in his collection, but with his fellow collectors.

Numismatics: Monumental Art

Alludes to the high quality of art often found on coins and bank notes as well as the "monumental" or commemorative nature of many events, places and people depicted on numismatic items.

Coins: Alexander to Zambia

Using the "A to Z" approach to show the breadth of the hobby, it also illustrates the people (Alexander the Great) and places (Zambia) - ancient to modern - are themes collectors can pursue.
